BRAZIL ROUTS 'ROOS AGAIN ROMARIO THE DESTROYER

IT'S ALL OVER BAR THE SHOUTING

- Box Hill's Craig Davidson got the better of Heidelberg goalscorer Lou Theodosopoulos with this unorthodox tackle on Sunday, but Lou had the last laugh as Heidelberg went on to win.
- Thanks to its massive goal difference, Heidelberg has wrapped up the State League title with one round left to play.

ALL THE STATE LEAGUE DETAILS COMMENCE ON PAGE 8

The Socceroos, on a high after that stunning 1-0 victory over Yugoslavia, have that morning-after feeling today, their euphoria shattered by a 3-0 trouncing from Brazil.

The scoreline could have been worse too, had not Jeff Olver saved a penalty from Romario

The Socceroos' forwards' failure in front of goal, so apparent against Yugoslavia was their downfall this time, coupled with the fact that they once more ran into their nemesis, in the shape of Romario Farias, known to soccer fans the world over simply as Romario.

Romario, small but built like a pocket battleship carried too many guns for the Socceroos in the Bicentennial Gold Cup and on Tuesday night in Seoul's Dongdaemon Stadium he ripped our lumbering defence to shreds.

He brought back memories of Pele, the man he might eventually supplant in the affections of Brazil-ians, with a hat-trick, to earn unstinting praise from Frank Arok.

"The little bastard's too quick and strong", he said afterwards "Whenever Brazil wins it is Romario. Always Romario".

With Yugoslavia bouncing back to defeat Nigeria 3-1, the Socceroos are left with a mountain to climb.

They need to beat Nigeria by a big margin tonight (Thursday), and hope for a repeat performance from Brazil against Yugoslavia to have any chance of going forward to the next round.

YET ANOTHER REFEREE ASSAULTED

Grade One referee John Rutter is the latest referee to be assaulted in one more disgraceful incident of crowd misbehaviour.

Rutter officiated in the Provisional League Third Division game between Parkmore and Meadow Park.

Near the end of the game he sent off Parkmore's Joe Palinkas and after he had blown the final whistle, he was approached by a spectator who threw a bucket of water over him.

He was then surrounded by spectators and hit from behind.

DRAIN
CONTINUES
Remember Alistair
Edwards?

The tall, extremely skilful midfielder from West Australia starred in last year's AIS team, and was much sought after by Eastern NSL clubs.

Now Edwards, frustrated by the lack of opportunity for top-class soccer in Western Australia has become the latest example of the continuing talent drain by signing for Rangers (that's Rangers as in Glasgow).

It's a double blow for Aussie soccer, coming as it does right on the heels of Robbie Slater's announcement that he is going to Yugoslavia Club Hajduk Split straight after the Olympics.

The quarter finals, semi-finals and final will be played here in Melbourne at the Sports and Entertainment Centre.

So put on your thinking caps and come up with a suitable name for the Aussie team.

Send your suggestions to Ms Bambi Gordon, c/- Olympic Park, Swan St, Melbourne.

The ten best suggestions will each win a double pass to the finals, but it has to be under-held in Australia next month, with elimination rounds being held in Wollongong, the Latrobe Valley, Geelong and Canberra.

ISN'T it fascinating to see those sections of the media who normally shun soccer scrambling desperately to jump on the bandwagon when the Socceroos pull off another of their giant-killing acts!

The Editor,

Soccer Star.

Dear Sir,

RE SOCCER COACHES

I have been reading with interest your correspondent Bob Brans' articles on soccer coaches, and have the following comments to make to his one-sided arguments.

1. If coaches want a contract and the club doesn't want to give him one does this mean that he has to coach the team or does he have a choice to say, if you don't give me a binding contract I will not coach your team?

2. Has Bob Brian been involved in club soccer as an Administrator, if so he has a short memory, because coaches can be demanding and as rude as the committee people who have engaged them.

3. I have been involved with the Geelong Soccer and Sports Club for thirty years, and I have had to cuddle coaches, write letters to coaches assuring them they are safe, etc., they are a breed on their own and are always looking for ways out of a situation that they couldn't afford it, was the excuse. Costs had to be cut because of the Bicentennial Gold Cup payment of $600,000 hadn't been forthcoming at that time from promoter Pascoe Nally.

They couldn't afford it, was the excuse. Costs had to be cut because of the Bicentennial Gold Cup payment of $600,000 hadn't been forthcoming at that time from promoter Pascoe Nally.

I don't know if it has been paid yet. But I do know that Arok, or, to be more accurate, his businesswoman wife, came up with the necessary expenses for the trip.

Arok

watched Yugoslavia draw 2-2 and came back with the plan that guided the Socceroos through the vital first game and bought hope of qualification for the quarter finals and perhaps even a medal.

That would be a diabolical act of sabotage for no other has done more for our reputation abroad. No other has built a team so respected by its opponents and no other has attracted the attention of the

"I couldn't get that in five years with the ASF," he says. "But I am not chasing any rainbows. If I am satisfied with my terms, I am very stable.

"But I am a very confident person. Scared of nothing. And if I have to move, I will.

"But the time is coming when I will have to make a decision, either to stay with Australia or accept a foreign offer. At the moment I do not know."

It would be a great loss to Australian soccer if Arok was to be allowed to leave before the World

Cup.

Although he relies heavily on his assistant Eddie

Thomson,

he provided the high profile

the game

needs while it is still trying to establish itself in the minds of Australians.

It is Australian soccer for the moment and he has proved himself loyal for turning down at least two coaching jobs abroad which would have set him up for life.

But it is no secret that despite his achievements,

Arok

still has enemies

among those guiding the destiny of Australian soccer. Those who would like to see him replaced.

His contract comes up for renewal as soon as

Australia's

interest in the Olympics has ended and it is by no means certain that he will be offered another.

Consider for a moment,

the day's events as the

Socceroos

tried to find their way to the tiny town of Kwangju.

It all began with a proposed meal at the cafeteria

in the Olympic Village,

but that had to be queues were too long and there wasn't sufficient

IT WAS AUSTRALIAN SOCCER'S PROUDEST MOMENT Seoul Monday

AUSTRALIAN soccer's proudest moment arrived in Kwangju late yesterday when the Socceroos opened their Seoul Olympic campaign with a brilliant 1-0 win over Los Angeles Games bronze medallist, Yugoslavia.

One goal difference was all coach Frank Arok could ever have prayed for, yet it so easily could have been 2-0 or 3-0 against one of Europe's most accomplished sides and the country which has won more Olympic soccer medals than any other.

Socceroos captain Charlie Yankos incredibly went wide of the net with the keeper beaten with a shot from the penalty spot in the 88th minute, while striker David Mitchell hit the left hand post with a header, and substitute Vlado Bozinoski missed with the keeper on the ground — all in an awesome second half onslaught on the Yugoslavs.

The 4-1 victory over world champions Argentina in the recent Gold Cup pales into significance by comparison with yesterday's victory. That was essentially a friendly international, the win over Yugoslavia was scored in deadly serious Olympic competition.

"This is the greatest moment ever for the Socceroos," said a pale and emotionally-drained Arok. "This will be a lift for the entire Australian team. We couldn't have asked for a better start."

marconi goal shark Frank Farina became the hero of all Australia in the within the next 10 minutes.

The Socceroos, by contrast, were a model of composure and concentration. Time and again the Yugoslavs swept the ball into the Australian goal square only to be met by a solid wall of gold jerseys. There was even a touch of insolence about the Australian as they turned the ball back to goalkeeper Jeff Oliver as the frustrated Yugoslavs milled around.

And just as the Australians had anticipated, the Yugoslavs completely fell to pieces arguing among themselves and launching three wild shots at the Socceroos' goal.

Behind him, Oliver was as unflappable as Arok is excitable. He blocked two threatening Yugoslav shots in the scoreless first half, the second a powerful header from striker Predrag Spasic from point-blank range. The ball ricocheted off Oliver's chest but he gathered it in an instant and clutched the ball to his body as though it were his life's savings.

The Socceroos were certainly no shrinking violets. Four yellow cards were handed out against them, the worst offence coming from striker Graham Arnold when he accidentally kicked Yugoslav's No.1 keeper Gradko Lekovic in the head as he dived for a spilled ball in front of goal.

Central defender Robbie Dunn was given another for an incident in back play while Oliver and skipper Yankoski both were given the yellow card for time wasting as the Australians tried everything to protect their one goal advantage.

The yellow cards were the last thing on the Australians' minds as they hurriedly left the Kwangju ground to catch a late-night flight back to Seoul, but they will need to keep them in mind when they play a gold medal favourites Brazil at the Tongassum Stadium tomorrow (Tuesday).

Should any of the four players receive a second yellow, they will be automatically suspended for Thursday's match against Nigeria, also to be played in Seoul.

Arok refused to speculate on the Socceroos' chances against Brazil until after he had had a long drink, but the Australians cannot be discounted on their electrifying form yesterday.

Even should they lose, they would still qualify for the quarter-finals if they defeat Nigeria, and that appears to be a result very much within their ambitious reach.

COACHES, players, administrators, referees — all are taken into consideration in the judging for the Andy Kun Trophy for the Victorian Soccer Personality of the Year.

Presented at the VSF Annual Meeting, the Award is the most egalitarian available.

Last year it went to Jeff Oliver for his keepng in the Presidents Cup in Seoul and in Australia's victory on penalties over Everton at Olympic Park.

Who will it be this year? The judges have been deliberating for more than a month trying to decide between a long list of possibilities, including:

• PAUL WADE — Soccer's Mr Nice Guy who impresses referees as much as he impresses fellow players as well as spectators — hence his triumph in the recent NSL Rothmans Medal count.

An inspiring presence in the South Melbourne Hellas and Socceroo midfielders and a true sportsman. He won the NSL championship while he developed there include his own son Mike, who is in Seoul in the NSL.

The man who disallowed that Spanish goal against Brazil in 1986, he also put on a fearless display in the recent NSL Grand Final, sending off two players an awarding a penalty just before the end of extra time. Throughout it all he retains his sense of humour smiling all the while.

• CHRIS BAMBRIDGE — Already voted Australian Referee of the Year, he is now in Seoul and has the distinction of having refereed at the World Cup, the Olympics, the World Youth Championship and the Under 16 World Cup.

His success as a junior coach at Port Melbourne is legendary. The players goals) Crino was invariably the source of inspiration. In a 1-0 loss to Brazil in the Bicentennial Gold Cup in Melbourne, he was the best player on the field — not a bad effort against some of the finest players in the world.

And we saw more of his magic in the second half against Yugoslavia in Seoul on Sunday.

• DANNY McMINIMEE — former player who has turned into a talented, hard working studious coach taking Frankston on Pines to the top of the First Division ladder and into the State League next season.

• ALF BULIC — Spearheaded the drive that led to Ken Knight becoming the major part-owners of the first privately-owned NSL club, Footscray JUST. A millionaire builder of Balwyn, Bulic is a man of action. Building of a multi-million dollar licensed social club is well under way at Schinter Reserve, a gala international concert, featuring the outstanding recording artists of the various Yugoslav States, is being planned for later this year, and Bulic also has lined up some top class playing talent to keep the JUST turnstiles clicking in 1989 and beyond.

• PAUL TRIMBOLI — Rated by his fellow players as the No.1 forward in Australia, he joined South Melbourne Hellas from George Cross early this year, was elevated to the Socceroo squad for the Bicentennial Gold Cup and then voted 1988 Under-21 Player of the Year. His skill is impeccable. Give him the ball anyway he likes and he'll control it with one touch, while sliding away from his opponent at the same time. He knows what is "on" before he gets the ball and can relay it accurately even without looking.

Apart from being South's top scorer this year, he also helped create most of the team's other goals.

• ALAN DAVIDSON — Bidding farewell to international soccer in Seoul, Davidson will, however, continue playing club football with Melbourne Croatia.

• DANNY McMINIMEE — former player who has turned into a talented, hard working studious coach taking Frankston on Pines to the top of the First Division ladder and into the State League next season.

Winding up its 1988 season with a 2-0 win in a postponed match against Bentleigh Greens last Saturday at H.V. Jones Reserve, Boronia Reserves went to the top of the league, displacing the top leaders Langwarrin.

However, Langwarrin has to play a postponed match against bottom of the ladder Holland Park whose seniors topped their league.

Boronia's reserves had to win against Bentleigh Greens to make a points tally of 35 as against Langwarrin's 34 and having done so Langwarrin now must beat Holland Park to win the premiership.

No doubt both Langwarrin and Holland Park will boost their teams strength with seniors who have now completed their commitments.

Last Saturday Boronia's reserves had to tangle with a Bentleigh team that had been packed with five of its seniors who had recently demolished Boronia seniors 3-0.

But Boronia's player-coach, Hamish Young, kept faith in his regulars who passed themselves with a show of team work never before seen this season.

Boronia went to the lead in the 5th minute with a headed goal by David Fairburn from a high cross by John Forbes from the right corner.

The score was brought to a 2-0 after Fairburn beat a man near the byeline to pass to Hamish Young who in turn set up Forbes who netted to surprise the visitors again at 37 minutes.

In the second half Boronia successfully absorbed much pressure with keeper Bravo and defenders Fawthorpe, Desmond, Clarke and Strahan rising to the occasion brilliantly. This pressure is signified in the corners tally in which in the first half Boronia conceded none but conceded five in the second period.

After such a show nobody could pick a best three for Boronia so the full team took the accolade.

Best for Bentleigh Greens: I. C. Holmes, 2. P. Myszka, 3. A. Argiros. All three played in their team's seniors victory two weeks previously.

HOW YOUR TEAM FADED

as they watched it flash across the face of goal, only to see Deligiannis squeeze the ball through an acute angle between the near post and the outstretched hands of Oakleigh keeper Michael Alexandropoulos.

The dose was repeated in the 39th minute as Caulfield wrapped up the match, when Angie Goutzioulis rose to flick on a header to the running Deligiannis, who drove the ball home from eighteen yards and into the bottom left hand corner of the net.

As the day grew darker, colder and wetter Caulfield never looked in danger of losing this encounter, however,

MAN OF THE MATCH:
• • •
MIKE VALENTINE

Heidelberg United took a giant step towards capturing the second State League Championship since 1975, by defeating Box Hill 2-0 at Wembley Park on Sunday.

Wembley Park on eighteenth minute. Phil

Stubbins belted his shot straight into the five man wall from where it rebounded to Mike Valentine, whose drive luckily found Theodosopoulos a metre from the goal line.

The two important goals were scored within the first half-hour of the game by the double close — season signings from Caulfield City, Lou Theodosopoulos and Con Pappas.

The first goal resulted, from a free-kick awarded just outside the Box Hill defence.

A cross from the right wing by overlapping full-back Arthur Patiniotis, was latched onto by Stubbins, who managed to get behind the Hillmen

defence.

Chesting the ball under control, Stubbins tried to round 'keeper John McKinlay only to slip at the last hurdle and try a fresh air shot in vain whilst still on the ground.

With Stubbins and McKinlay crawling for the ball, Pappas came bursting onto the scene and put an end to this goalmouth scramble (as well as everyone's misery), with a right footed goal from approximately three metres out.

In the second half the Heidelberg domination was maintained, largely due to the efforts of hard-working midfielders Mike Valentine and Claude Lucchesi.

For most of this period Box Hill chased shadows and found the slick passing of Heidelberg too hot to handle.

Unfortunately for Box Hill, with one game left to play for Season '88 only a mathematical miracle can ease its relegation fears.

Rowville United
sowed a touch of real class in its dual crisis encounters in this round.

Its first team
needed the win over North Dandenong
Sparrows in order to protect its Runners-up guernsey from the fast-finishing Thomas-town United and Dandy Dynamo.

Its Reserves Team also needed a win over the Sparrows in order to make sure of the Division 2A
Reserves Championship,
as a loss would have dumped it to third

position, and a draw to no better than the Runners-up spot.

In the event, it managed quite handsomely to protect both positions, its First winning 5-1 and its Reserves scraping home
3-2.

The loss in the Reserves match was a cruel blow to the Sparrows as it dropped them to the third spot
behind the flamboyant
and fast-finishing Flamingo.

The Rowville management will be well pleased
with this year's results, as last year the Club was struggling at the bottom

ROWVILLE ROMPS HOME

end of the Table. The rise to Division Runners-up and Reserves Champions has been meteoric, and is the result of a lot of hard work and rigid discipline.

But if anyone thinks that the Drama of Division 2A is over, he's wrong. Who will make up the Top Four? Dandy Dynamo sits in 4th place at the moment strictly on alphabetical precedence over Flamingo.

The Rowville management will be well pleased
with this year's results, as

not yet made sure of the Reserves Championship,
as the Eagles still hang on those bare two points behind, but with a much better goal difference.

The postponed fixture between these two Clubs next week will decide the issue once and for all. But this much is certain, Fibremakers United is the Champion and Montrose is the runner-up, while in the Reserves Fibremakers and Springvale Eagles will take the two major awards.

With Fibremakers still sitting on place in the League Cup Final, 1988
will certainly go down as this Club's most successful season ever.

The inconsistent Division 3
East continued unabated in this round. Garden City
(3rd) was knocked off 4-2
by Taxation United (7th), and Bowater (4th) by Oakleigh City (9th).

In Division One,
Middle Park made sure of the League and Reserves
double when its Reserves edged out Apollo United 2-1. Apollo had some revenge in the Firsts encounter when it held the League Champions to a credible 2-2 draw.

The Reserves result completed a remarkable year for the Parkers, as they have won both the League and Reserves Championships, and reached the semi-finals of both the Mansfield
Bunney League and Invitation Cup.

While long-serving
coach, Malcolm Luckins, may be disappointed that his team did not pull off the quadrilla, 1988 will certainly mark a high point in his career.

Another Club which has done remarkably well in this Division is Hampton Park United,
which has stormed home
over recent weeks to make sure of the League and of the League Reserves
Runners-up double.

The Club, which made
First Division this year only as the result of a last-minute vacancy, has put some of its more experienced opposition to shame. Altona Ildinden in particular will be bitterly disappointed, as the previous Championship contenders could in the end do no better than third

In Division Two
Morning, Fibremakers has finally put paid to the Montrose bogey, the latter losing in this round to Springvale Eagles, but has

While the double the All Stars wage a chance may save some relentless war of nerves Clubs, the near sudden death atmosphere of the Milsavjevic's star-studded line-up.

But will the ploy backfire? Will the Golden Oldies tear the All Stars to shreds? All will be revealed in these columns
as the days go by.

Finally, at 3 o'clock comes the kick off in the Mansfield Bunney
League Cup Final.

Both the teams involved are playing in their first Final.

Fibremakers United
has been a member of the League for 16 years, while Windsor is in only its second season. The two teams play markedly different styles, with Fibremakers a far more close-checking combination than the innovative Greeks.

Certainly, the Mountainmen cannot afford to allow the Windsor forwards any latitude, or they will be cut to pieces. By the same token, the Windsor players will need to keep their collective cool, or the Fibremakers' Mean Machine will slowly but surely grind them down.
